IMPORTANT TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO WEATHER

CANCELLATION ON THE DAY DUE TO WEATHER CONDITIONS

Please be advised that the Iron Flower display is highly weather-dependent, as the performance involves the use of open fire and molten iron. If the rain obstructs the fire from burning, then the event would unfortunately have to be cancelled.

In the event of rain or adverse weather conditions where the performance cannot continue, a decision to proceed or cancel will be made on the day and on-site based on safety parameters. The safety of our participants and performers is our highest priority.

Should the event be cancelled by the Nan Hua Temple on the day due to adverse weather conditions, we will postpone the event to the same time, 23h30, on 1 January 2026.

Should the adverse weather event persist from 31 December 2025 to 1 January 2026, then unfortunately, we will be unable to continue with the performance this year, and we request that you please pick any of the choices below instead of a cash refund:

- ☐ Offering of a lantern in the Main Shrine (R100 per month)
- ☐ Offering of an oil lamp in the Main Shrine (R100 per week)
- ☐ Donation towards our school lunch program
- ☐ Donation towards our Nan Hua Performance Group program
- ☐ Donation towards our community outreach program
- ☐ Donation to the Nan Hua Temple for maintenance
- ☐ Sunday lunch voucher at our Dining Hall (R50 per voucher)
- ☐ Voucher at our Coffee Shop (R200 per voucher)

Please note that the above terms and conditions only apply to participants who attended the Nan Hua Temple for the Iron Flower Display, and upon attendance the event was cancelled due to adverse weather. The above does not apply to ticket holders who elected not to attend the event on their own accord, with or without notice for their non-attendance.

Please sign below in confirmation that you have read and understood the ticket conditions relating to the event.

I,  have carefully read, understood, and agree to follow the Ts&Cs stated above in this agreement.
