Processing of Personal Information

1. The Applicant's privacy is very important to BLIA and it will use reasonable efforts in order to ensure that any information, including personal information, provided by the Applicant, or which is collected from the Applicant, is stored in a secure manner.
2. The Applicant agrees to give (where applicable) honest, accurate and current information about the Applicant to BLIA and to maintain and update such information when necessary.
3. The Applicant's personal information collected by BLIA may be used for the following reasons:
 - 3.1. the processing of its personal information on its website;
 - 3.2. transferred to and maintained on servers located outside of South Africa and store it there. If that happens, the Applicant's personal information will only be transferred to and stored in country that has equivalent, or better, data protection legislation than South Africa; and
 - 3.3. direct marketing of future events and activities of BLIA.
4. The Applicant acknowledges that any information supplied to BLIA is voluntary.
5. By submitting any information to BLIA in any form the Applicant further acknowledges that such conduct constitutes an unconditional, specific and voluntary consent to the processing of such information by BLIA under any applicable law in the manner contemplated above, which consent shall, in the absence of any written objection received from the Applicant, be indefinite and/or for the period otherwise required in terms of any applicable law.
6. Unless the Applicant has consented, BLIA will not exchange, transfer or otherwise make available any personal information about the Applicant (such as name, address, email address, telephone or fax number) to other parties and the Applicant indemnifies BLIA from any unintentional disclosures of such information to unauthorised persons.
7. Should the Applicant believe that BLIA has utilised his/ her personal information contrary to applicable law, the Applicant shall first resolve any concerns with BLIA. If the Applicant is not satisfied with such process, he/ she has the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator of South Africa.
